

Privacy Policy

Privacy Statement

Rampart Partitions, Inc. (henceforth known as “Rampart”) respects its users’ privacy and protects it by all means possible. We have designed our website so you can visit it without identifying yourself or disclosing personal information. If you choose to provide us personally identifiable information (any information by which you can be identified), we assure you we will only use it to support your customer relationship with Rampart.

This statement regarding the privacy of the personally identifiable information you provide to us online covers the five foundation principles of fair information: Awareness, Choice, Accuracy & Access, Security, and Oversight.

Awareness

Rampart provides this online privacy statement to you, so you are aware of our privacy policy and practices. To make this notice easy to find, we make it available on our website at rampart.ca/privacy-policy.

What we collect

On the Rampart website, you can make requests and register to receive educational material. The types of personal information collected on these pages are name, email, and phone number.

To tailor our future communications to you and improve our products and services, we may also ask you to provide us with information regarding your personal or professional interests, demographics, and experience with our products.

How we use it

Rampart uses your information to understand your needs better and provide better service. We may use your information to communicate with you, update you on our services, create new content, and/or tailor our website to better suit users' needs.

Occasionally, we may also use your information for market research purposes or to provide you with marketing information we think would interest you. If you don't wish to receive this information, we will always give you the opportunity to opt-out.

Who we share it with

Rampart will not give any of your personal information to others unless you permit us to do so. We will not sell, rent, or lease your personally identifiable information to other parties.

Choice

Rampart will not use or share your personally identifiable information provided to us online in ways unrelated to the ones described above without first letting you know and offering you a choice. If you do not want to receive any unsolicited information from us, you can unsubscribe, and we will honour that request.

Accuracy & Access

Rampart wishes to keep your personally identifiable information accurate and up to date. You can access your previously submitted information, and you can view and update your information on the Rampart site where you submitted it.

Security

Rampart will protect your personal information and secure it. To prevent unauthorized access or disclosure, maintain data accuracy, and ensure the appropriate use of information, we have put physical and electronic procedures in place to safeguard and secure the information we collect from our website.
